First Presbyterian Church needs YOU!

We all pay attention to the political scene this time of year. We discuss candidates and issues among friends and neighbors. Then, on the first Tuesday of November, we go and cast our votes for the candidate in whom we have the most faith.

At this time of year we also turn our thoughts into electing officers to lead our church. With equally important issues facing us as a congregation, it is important that we elect the persons needed to guide our church over the next year. Our process includes nominating people we believe to be the best leaders. Everyone should feel the desire to help in this process.

In order for the Nominating Committee to effectively carry out its duty to propose a slate of officers to the congregation, we need your input. We need to know who you think will be the best leaders for both the Diaconate and the Session. The Deacons offer nurture and care to the congregation. Elders provide direction in the governance of the church.

For the next two weeks, prayerfully consider people in the church whom you deem to best fit these roles. Submit them to the church office or give them to anyone on the Nominating Committee. If you feel led to take a leadership role in the church it is fine to nominate yourself. The key is to act on this and not just think about it.

The Nominating Committee needs your help! Our next meeting is on October 4th. Your input is needed on or before Sunday, October 3.
