

FALL RUMAGE SALE FOR THE TOY SHOP

One of the biggest and best rummage sales of the Toy Shop ever will be held at the fair grounds on October 3 and 4. Donations will be welcomed at the fair grounds on Monday, September 29 from 9am-5pm. All proceeds from the sale will go to buy toys for under privileged children in Duncan. Last year about 1,000 children received gifts from the Toy Shop. Forty dollars per child is usually spent. Good clean used toys are also welcomed, however, these are in addition to the original $40.00 presents for each child. There is a bicycle segment of the Toy Shop, in which some very talented men work all year long cleaning, repairing and painting used bicycles.

There are no paid personnel involved, in the Toy Shop which is sponsored by the Church Women United of Duncan which is a unit of The Church Women United, an international organization started in 1941. CWU in the United States, headquarters in NY City. There are more than 1,200 local and state units which compose CWU and each unit may have its own community project which is "impassioned by the Holy Spirit to act on behalf of women and children throughout the world." The American Association of University Women of Duncan originated the toy shop and turned it over to CWU in 1947.

If It's September....It Must Be Augusta

And it is Augusta Slagle, and Ruth Wyatt, Augusta's good friend and co-researcher (Is that a word?) at the Stephens County Genealogical Society Library, together at El Palacio Restaurant with Rev. Kathy, Bruce and seventeen more of Augusta's dear friends and members of her church family – there to celebrate Augusta's September birthday. Birthday wishes do come true. We can't be sure of Augusta's wish – but our wish was to be with her on this, her very special day.

How about you? Do you have an October birthday to celebrate? Join the party on October 15 at El Palacio. We'll keep the candle on the cake lit - just for you. (Don't ask – It's magic.)

October 2014

LORD, I LIFT YOUR NAME ON HIGH. Seeing the enormous crane lifting the new air conditioning unit onto the roof reminded me immediately of the praise song, Lord, I Lift Your Name on High. Rick Founds wrote the immensely popular praise song by that name in 1989 with the lyrics: You came from heaven to earth, to show the way From the earth to the cross, my debt to pay From the cross to the grave, from the grave to the sky. Lord I lift your name on high.

I was also reminded of how much we at FPC Duncan have to praise. God for when I saw that crane. We have ongoing renovations in the bricks and mortar church. Guest and members cannot fail to catch a sense of enthusiasm for a future we are building together for the church that is both seen and unseen.

Speaking of guest...Please welcome into our faith community Alyson Hayes. Aly is a senior at Cameron University majoring in voice and teaches piano as well. She is a delight to be around and an asset God has sent to us. Aly resides in Marlow. Her father is a Baptist pastor here in Duncan so she knows the "church business" well and appreciates sacred music, feeling called to a vocation in teaching and leading church music programs. Aly is directing the choir presently and hopefully will continue to be called here to FPC. Please pray for our worship, music department and educational life knowing how blessed we are to be together in this place at this moment.

The calendar is crowded for the next three months-thanks be to God! On October 10 we host the stated meeting of Indian Nations Presbytery. Your help as a greeter welcoming the members and guests of our presbytery is encouraged as well as attendance at the morning worship service. We will kick off a stewardship campaign this month, enjoy a family potluck meal on the 26th of October, celebrate the Reformation in November with a visit from Martin Luther (are we lucky to get him!), have the in-gathering of pledges on November 23 with lunch along with the hanging of the greens (come for one or both) and begin Advent on the last Sunday in November. Christmas Eve will be on the 24th of December this year (lol) celebrating the coming of Christ into our world with a candlelight and communion service at 6:30 pm.

Yes, Lord we lift you Name on High! Come PRAISE God with us at divine worship every SUNDAY at 10:45 am and bring a friend! Fall joy and blessing!

Rev. Kathy Vineyard
